Mrs. Irene Mount Gordon

Memorial Dedication

It is not often that a yearbook staff can single out one woman in a college who was a loyal daughter, a true friend, and an inspiring leader—in short, a symbol of all that college life offers. This year the task has been an easy one

To

Mrs. Irene Mount Gordon

The 1949 Wigwam

is respectfully dedicated

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

We were scared . . . and we looked it. We wandered through the halls, fingers crossed, eyes wide open, mouths agape. Why, we were in college! We elected officers in a hurry . . . we wanted to get organized. So we put Ray Doggett in the pilot's seat; Ellen Brinser was co-pilot; Gladys Watson was navigator, and Jesse Addison took up the collection. Mary Jane Dole guided us through the low ceiling to the clear. That ceiling was rough . . . Duck Week! That pledge, the pillowcase, no make-up . . . and we wanted to be college material! Well, we soon showed our mettle . . . we gave a big May Day dance that left the school agog until graduation. We showed 'em that we could do other things besides play hearts.

Then we were Sophomores . . . and R. P. I. grew up. Yep, in 1946 R. P. I. acquired three new habits . . . the V. P. I. Extension; Mid-Winters were inaugurated, and MEN suddenly appeared . . . hundreds of them! We took a good luck at them and went into a huddle. Then we looked again . . . and decided to eliminate Duck Week. After all, these Freshmen were older than we were, and they'd already been through more than enough. So we went into another huddle and elected Gladys Watson captain of the team with Josephine Miller as co-captain. We made Jacqueline Gaines official scorekeeper while Martha Williams passed the hat. Dr. Howard Davis coached us through our second year at R. P. I.

Then we were Juniors. We were rounding the back stretch on the way toward that degree. Dr. H. Davis took over the reins again, while Nancy Taylor applied the whip vigorously. Reid Limerick supplied extra whips, and Jacqueline Gaines kept note of the betting. Lola Mae Shiflett searched us out for the green stuff. In May we extended courteous invitations to our Seniors, and escorted them to the Junior-Senior Banquet. We were having a grand time!

September of 1948 dawned, and one day we realized we were king pins in the school . . . we were measured for caps and gowns. We were here at last . . . the Senior Class. We took a deep breath and elected William Jordan to knock down the pins. Jacqueline Gaines set 'em up in the other alley, while Betty Ann Farmer kept score. Nancy Kaesshaeffer presided over the check book. Cheering from the sidelines was our faithful advisor, Dr. Davis. We had a big final year. We watched the inauguration of the party and precinct systems for the S. G. A. We enjoyed an extended Thanksgiving holiday experiment. We saw the Young Independent Voters' Club get off to a good start. And we were guests at the Junior-Senior Banquet!

Now we are approaching the day when we will be handed that degree for which we have struggled, worked and prayed. It's been hard at times . . . fun at times . . . but we'll always remember it.

Student Government

The Student Government is the undergraduate governing body. As such it is the official link between the students and the College Administration.

The Student Government meets weekly to discuss matters concerning the students, the constitutions of campus organizations, matters affecting college life, and the school's social activities. As the voice of the student body it is a unifying and centralizing agency which can take any action necessary to improve and govern undergraduate life.

One of the outstanding achievements of the present Student Government was the preparation of the new constitutions. Every effort was made to allow for the growth of the student activities. School spirit was one of its main objectives, and they went far toward reaching this goal. The link between the students and the administration was strengthened by the untiring efforts of the following:

OFFICERS

Bill Sewell ..... Acting President

Lola Mae Shiflet ..... Vice President

Katherine Shane ..... Secretary

Bill Hamilton ..... Treasurer

Honor Council

The Honor Council is composed of the president, vice president and secretary of the Student Council plus one representative from the men's dormitory, one from Virginia Polytechnic Institute Extension, and two from the dormitories. They are, respectively, William Sewell, Lola Mae Shiflet, Katherine Shane, Clyde Harrison, William Hamilton, Joyce Mathis and Sue Grosner.

It is the duty of the Honor Council to try persons that are guilty of an infraction of the Honor Code, which is interpreted as an offense such as lying, cheating or stealing.

1949

The Staff gave a sigh of relief, and the students echoed it. We are having a yearbook; that was the main goal of the 1949 Wigwam. The Staff this year was not only handicapped with insufficient funds but also with the lack of leaders versed in the art of publishing an annual. In the attempt to portray our college life as it really is, we have tried to personalize this year's Wigwam. We hope that you will enjoy the book and that it will be a constant reminder of the friends which you have made and the activities which you have participated in at dear old Richmond Professional Institute.

BASKETBALL TEAM

Men's Athletic Association

The Men's Athletic Association was created by the men students to promote athletics at Richmond Professional Institute. The school's varsity soccer, basketball and baseball teams are under the auspicies of this group. The Association also sponsored a very successful intramural touch-football series, since we do not have the facilities for regular football. Our basketball team, under the leadership of Coach Reese, experienced a very poor season. We feel that this is probably due to the fact that we moved into a higher league than we were prepared for, and we hope for better results next year. Our soccer team won several games. Men's athletics are a relatively new institution at R. P. I., but we know that our men's athletics will grow bigger and better as R. P. I. has done in the past. The M. A. A. was lead this year by the following:

OFFICERS

JACK BIRKHEAD . . . . . President

CLIFF BOYD . . . . . Vice President

MIXED CHORUS

Highlighting the year for the Mixed Chorus was the Choral Clinic and Concert held in the fall. The group, composed of 105 voices, was directed at this time by Dr. Harry Robert Wilson, guest conductor, and Head of the Music Department at Columbia University.

Besides the presentation of "Student Prince" this spring, they have made other broadcasts and recordings at Radio Station WRVA. Mr. Robert L. Field, assistant professor in the Music Department, was director of the Chorus during the first semester.

The group has appeared on programs at Camp Lee, Petersburg, William and Mary College and Mary Washington College of the University of Virginia. In addition, they have broadcasted numerous times over Richmond Radio Station WRVA.

Mr. Volney Shepherd, head of the Music Department, directs the orchestra.
